Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims in this application have been allowed because the prior art does not disclose a collar for pets, the collar including an adjustment belt with equidistant engagement holes at one end; a neck belt with an engaging hoop at one end thereof and matched to the engagement holes of the adjustment belt; first and second coupling hoops at the other ends of the adjustment and neck belts, the first and second coupling hoops having first and second movable coupling belts respectively attached at the other ends of the coupling hoops, with first and second D-shaped leash hoops respectively disposed at outer ends of the other ends of the coupling belts; and male and female buckle pieces situated at middle sections of the coupling belts.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The cited references provide examples of prior art animal harness structures.
